Job & Benefits Savings Agreement "Q&A" Videos Online; Union Leadership and Administration Finalizing TA

May 26, 2011

The tentative job security agreement between the State Employees Bargaining Agent Coalition (SEBAC) and the Malloy administration is being reviewed and finalized for publication. The full tentative agreement will be posted to the InThisTogetherCT website once it is available so that all state employees can review it ahead of membership meetings and ratification votes that will take place throughout June.

In the meantime, we have begun to post several video question-and-answer segments designed to help you better understand the agreement before you vote on it. The segments feature SEBAC chief negotiator Daniel Livingston and attorney Robert Krzys, a labor advocate and healthcare expert who assisted in the discussions that produced the framework.

Access the videos at the InThisTogetherCT website and be sure to check back daily, as we will post nearly 30 segments for your use.

As always, we appreciate members' patience during this process.
